WOW! News

WOW! participates in a location-based advertising service for our Internet customers. This service uses the zip code, including the last four digits, location of your cable modem to display to you online ads relevant in your area. As your internet provider we take your privacy seriously. We will not as part of this service share with others any information that identifies you personally, and this service does not use your Internet browsing history. Visit <http://www.wowway.com/support/internet> for more information about this location-based advertising. You have a choice about whether we use your location information for location-based advertising. To opt-out of this service, visit wowway.net and login to manage your preferences. Opting out will not affect the services we provide to you. Your opt-out choice is valid until you affirmatively revoke it. You may revoke it at any time.
